Alongside the main meeting, which will take place from 11am to 12.30pm, there will be an interactive health and recruitment fair from 10am highlighting the diverse range of services provided by the Trust and some of our partnerships.

Staff will be showcasing the services they provide in adult mental health and learning disabilities, community services and services for children, young people and families. There will also be information about job vacancies and volunteering, as well as fundraising news from our charity, Raising Health. Please see the editor's notes for a list of some exhibitors.

The AGM will feature presentations on our performance over the last year, and key highlights against our objectives and current programmes of work. After the formal AGM meeting, visitors will have an opportunity to go around the exhibitions again until 1.30pm.

We welcome questions in advance of the meeting, which you can email to feedback@leicspart.nhs.uk, and you can also follow the event live on Twitter @LPTnhs.

There is no need to register, but it will help us to get an idea of numbers. If you would like to register, please visit www.leicspart.nhs.uk/InvolvingYou-AnnualGeneralMeetingandHealthandRecruitmentFairSeptember2017.aspx or email communications@leicspart.nhs.uk

The AGM will be followed by our Long Service Awards in the afternoon. This is an opportunity for the Trust to celebrate members of staff who have 25, 30 or 40 years' service within the NHS and to thank them for their contribution. Attendance to this part of the proceedings is by invitation only.
