Anna re-appointed as Non-Executive Director

Anna Vale has been re-appointed to serve as a Non-Executive Director of Leicestershire Partnership NHS Trust from 1 February to 31 January 2016.

Anna has already served one four-year term, having first joined the Trust on 1 February 2008.

LPT Chairman David Chiddick said: "I'm delighted that Anna has been re-appointed. Her experience and influence to date has been invaluable. I've no doubt that she will continue to contribute to the success of the organisation and will provide important continuity as we head towards becoming an NHS Foundation Trust."

Anna brings a wealth of knowledge to LPT's Board, having worked in various sectors including government and general commerce, at director level for the past 10 years. She has significant experience of risk management, procurement and dispute resolution, as well as company re-organisation, and strategy formulation.

Anna chairs the Quality Assurance Committee – a key Trust Board sub-committee – and is a member of the Finance and Performance, and Remuneration Committees.

Speaking about her re-appointment, Anna said: "I am very pleased to be re-elected and continuing to play a part in the future development and success of the Trust."

2. Anna's re-appointment was made by the Appointments Commission Health and Social Care Appointments Committee.

Her appointment is made in accordance with the Commissioner for Public Appointments Code of Practice. All appointments are made on merit and political activity plays no part in the selection process. However, in accordance with the original Nolan recommendations, there is a requirement for appointees' political activity (if any declared) to be made public. Where an appointee has declared political activity, this has been detailed below. In addition, details of any other Ministerial appointments held and the remuneration paid, where applicable, have been provided.

Anna Vale has been appointed as Non-executive Director of Leicestershire Partnership NHS Trust. She is reappointed from 1 February 2012 to 31 January 2016. This post is remunerated at £6,096 per annum.
