We're keen to hear the views of patients and carers

We are developing pathways of care for people with mental illness. Come and find out more.

14 February 2012

12pm-3pm

Brandon Mental Health Unit

A care pathway maps the care and treatment patients can expect to receive from us. We want these to centre around people's individual needs rather than their diagnosis. Come along and take a look at the pathways we have developed and tell us what you think.

Tea and coffee will be available
