Road repairs planned at Rutland Memorial Hospital

Road repairs are due to be carried out on part of the internal access roads at Rutland Memorial Hospital on Cold Overton Road in Oakham on Thursday 10 May and Friday 11 May.

Access roads to the outpatients' department and minor injuries unit within the hospital site will be closed to traffic and pedestrians during those two days.

Alternative access routes and car parking facilities will be clearly signposted for patients, visitors and staff and there will be no disruption to services in the hospital or at the neighbouring GP practice.
