LPT hosts its largest recruitment event

Leicestershire Partnership NHS Trust is holding its largest ever recruitment event on Tuesday, May 10.

There will be teams from 18 different services of the organisation available to meet jobseekers at an all day (10am-6.30pm) event at the Leicester Tigers' rugby ground, Welford Road, Leicester, LE2 7TR.

LPT is currently recruiting for just over 100 nursing vacancies, and around 25 posts in allied health professions and administrative and clerical roles.

LPT works across mental and physical health, and has hospitals and units across Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland. It currently employs around 5,400 staff.

Bal Johal, LPT's deputy chief nurse, said: "We are doing this on the back of successes we have had with meeting people face-to-face at other recruitment events. These have included open days at some of our units and community hospitals, visits to universities which train health students, and large recruitment fairs.

"We want to make a personal connection, and experience shows job seekers also like to meet us.

"It is an opportunity for people who might not have considered applying to work in the NHS to find out more."

As well as the teams of practitioners and managers already working for the Trust, there will also be experts available to give advice to nurses about how they can meet their new revalidation obligation by joining LPT.

The vacancies are a mix of full-time, part-time and casual (bank). We are looking for people who can live up to our values of respect, integrity, compassion, and trust. In return we offer benefits packages which include at least 27 days' paid holiday on top of eight bank holidays, pension, a range of salary sacrifice offers, and an excellent training regime.

The open day is open from 10am to 6.30pm on Tuesday, May 10. You can confirm your attendance on the Leicestershire Partnership Trust Jobs Facebook page. Details of all of LPT's current vacancies are available at www.jobs.nhs.uk ; follow us on Twitter @lptjobs .
