

Non mandatory training for registered nurses to support patients with borderline personality disorder

Request and Response

1) Does your organisation provide any non-mandatory training to registered nurses specifically to aid in the support and treatment of patients with a diagnosis of borderline personality disorder.

OUR RESPONSE: Yes

2) If the answer to question 1 is yes what is the name of the training provided.

OUR RESPONSE: The Trust's TSPPD (Therapy Service for People with Personality Disorder) hosts KUF (Knowledge and Understanding Framework) which is a three day basic awareness training on personality disorder funded by the National Offender's Pathway.

3) If the answer to question 1 is no, can you provide some brief information as to why this is not provided, please specify if there is a cost issue involved.

OUR RESPONSE: Not applicable.
