

We want to know what you think about a move we plan for our service.

We want to change where we care for people who are at Mill Lodge, Kegworth.

We want to move the service for people with Huntington's Disease and mental health problems that need lots of care. We want to move it to Stewart House in Narborough.

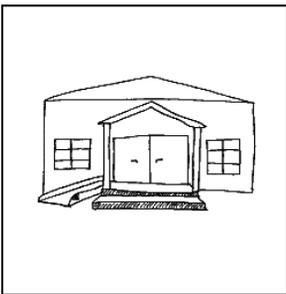

We want to build a new part near to Stewart House where people with Huntington's Disease can get treatment.

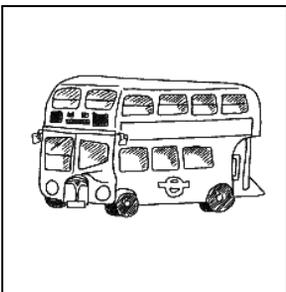

The service already at Stewart House giving mental health care would stay there in the old building.

Why would this change be good?

If we have one building instead of two we can make sure that the facilities are up to date.

Sometimes it is hard for staff to get to Kegworth to work . This change would help us keep the staff we have now and make it easier to hire new staff when we need to.

With better buildings, and with staff who will stay for a longer time, we can give patients better care.

We will have more money to spend on patient care if we only have to pay to run one building instead of two.

How would this change affect patients?

It will help us make sure patients get good care in a nice place.

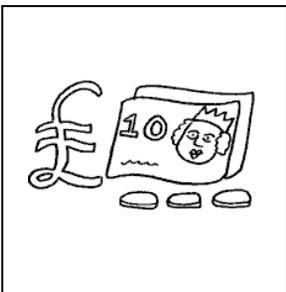

It would be easier to get to Narborough than to Kegworth for most people.

Our staff would be more likely to stay if it is easier to get to work, so both services would be more settled.

What other reasons are there for thinking this is a good change to make?

If we sell the Mill Lodge site we can use the money for patient care.

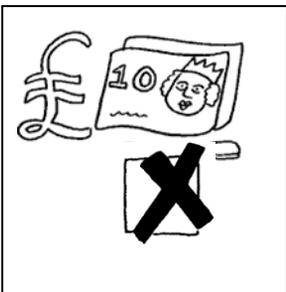

The money would allow us to buy better facilities at the Stewart House site.

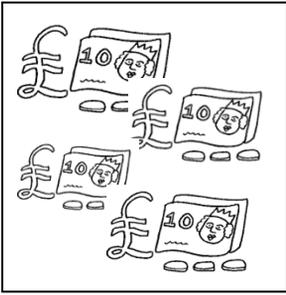

We would not need as much money to run buildings that are together in one place. That which means we have more money for patient care.

Have you thought about other ways to change things?

We could keep both services in their own buildings. There would be no money to make them better and safer for patients.

We could build a new Huntington's Disease Unit in Leicester but this would cost a lot of money. This would leave less for patient care.

We could move all Mill Lodge patients to Stewart House as it is. This would still need changes at a cost. It is more cost effective to build a new part onto Stewart House.

Will this change affect jobs?

Staff at Mill Lodge and at Stewart House will be able to work at Stewart House.

Staff could have more choice about working in either service at Stewart House.

Are you just making changes to save money?

No. We do have to spend carefully.
We want to give patients the best care in the best place we can.
We want to keep staff.
We think this will help us do all three things.

Our services will move but will not change.
There will be no cut in services.
