1.0 Summary

This document describes the key principles and process of appraisal which contributes to the performance of the Trust by providing an assurance mechanism that staff are equipped with the right knowledge, skills, competence, and behaviour to support them in demonstrating care, compassion, and openness in their work in accordance with our Trust values. Please see Appendix 1. The appraisal process also supports professional registration for groups of staff. This policy applies to all employees of the Trust covered by Agenda for Change Terms & Conditions. This policy excludes medical staff, bank staff and Executive Team.

All staff should act in accordance to our Trust leadership behaviours for all and be able to evidence adherence in situations involving stress at work. A fundamental approach to developing our Leadership behaviours for all is our ability to both give and receive feedback in a positive and insightful way. The feedback method is based on defining; Context, Understanding, Behaviour and Effect (CUBE).

2.0 Introduction

- 2.1 The appraisal process plays a vital part in achieving the Trust's objectives and helps each of us understand our contribution and the importance of our role in the Trust. Through appraisal our people are recognised and valued as critical to the effectiveness and quality of the service we provide.
- 2.2 The delivery of high quality, compassionate care within LPT depends on every member of staff having a well-structured appraisal. Effective appraisal and staff development contributes directly to improved patient experience, satisfaction, and outcomes. Research undertaken by The Kings Fund¹ identifies a well-structured appraisal leads to increased staff engagement, motivation, better health and wellbeing.
- 2.3 The appraisal process will clearly articulate and promote the leadership behaviours expected by the organisation in relation to the delivery of its services and allow the resulting data to be measured and reviewed to support continued excellence and development across the Trust. It will contribute to a broader organisational understanding of trends enabling the Trust to support staff development and provides a mechanism for recognising and rewarding efforts relating to pay step progression.
- 2.4 Appraisal is a joint responsibility of the individual and line manager and should be a two-way process with agreed outcomes and expectations. This should not be solely an annual event but part of a continuous process with regular discussion and feedback which is vital to an effective working relationship between managers and individuals within their team.
- 2.5 The whole focus of the appraisal meeting should be on the conversation between the appraiser and appraisee, supported by a record of this captured on uLearn.
- 2.6 Identified performance issues should be dealt with as they occur outside of appraisal using the Supporting Performance Policy and Procedure for the Trust i.e. the appraisal should not contain any surprises for the appraisee. However overall performance should be considered and reviewed as part of the annual appraisal allowing developmental opportunities to be identified and accessible to enable the individual to address performance issues.

- 2.7 Throughout the process all members of staff should be treated fairly and consistently and reviewers should take into account the diversity of staff and individual needs when implementing the appraisal process. The appraiser's manager will ensure appraisals are undertaken to the required standard, all parts of the appraisal process are completed, and done in a way that does not disadvantage individuals.

3.11 Employee Services

- Maintain ESR with correct pay step points.

4.0 Key Principles of Appraisal

- 4.1 Every employee will participate in an annual appraisal. This provides an opportunity for the appraisee and appraiser to reflect on the appraisee's contribution, performance, health and wellbeing, career aspirations and leadership behaviours during the previous 12 months. Identify what is required for the next year and agree a personal development plan.
- 4.2 In order for pay step progression to take place, appraisals need to be undertaken, recorded and signed off on uLearn in preceding 12 months. Where this has not been undertaken a manual pay step review form will need to be completed. Please use the Pay Policy for more information on pay progression.
- 4.3 To avoid delaying appraisals and pay step progression, appraisal can be delegated to another appropriate appraiser, for example, where the identified appraiser is on prolonged leave. Delegation can be upwards to the appraiser's manager. Appraisal should be delegated to someone who understands the post and the duties of the appraisee.
- 4.4 Appraisal is a two-way discussion, and provides the opportunity to reflect on the appraisee's contribution during the previous 12 months and will consist of:
- Review and recognition of performance against agreed appraisal objectives and leadership behaviours. (N.B. This should be a 'no surprises' discussion)
 - Discussion about leadership behaviours aligned to organisational values.
 - Assessment of competence in role.
 - Agreement of future work-related objectives.
 - Identification of future development needs.
 - Establishment of an overall performance outcome score.
 - Confirmation of compliance with mandatory training and professional standards.
- 4.5 All individuals will be appraised against the following criteria:
- Role / Individual Specific Objectives
 - Leadership Behaviours.

An overall Performance outcome will be agreed using the following:

Definition of performance outcome	Outcome Score
Exceeds expectations and consistently displays leadership behaviours on a day to day basis	5
Acceptable in all areas	4
Some areas for improvement	3
Significant areas for improvement	2
Unacceptable	1

A full explanation of the performance outcomes is provided at Appendix 2.

- 4.6 The appraisal should be carried out, where possible, by the immediate line manager/supervisor of the employee. However, managers with large numbers of direct reports can delegate to another appropriate appraiser. The maximum number of individuals a Whole Time Equivalent (WTE) appraiser should be responsible for appraising in a 12 month period is 10. However, it is at the line manager's discretion regarding whether they have capacity to carry out more than this. This should be reviewed regularly. Managers need to be aware that pay step progression is subject to all appraisals having been completed for all their staff as required.
- 4.7 To get the most from the annual appraisal review meeting it is important for both the appraiser and appraisee to give some thought and preparation about the appraisee's achievements in advance. Time will be facilitated during working hours to enable this of one hour. If it is felt further time is required individuals should raise this with their manager.
- 4.8 All staff's personal objectives need to be aligned to the organisational objectives and priorities for the year ahead.
- 4.9 All staff are required to have an equality objective set in addition to operational and organisational objectives. Guidance is available to access in the relevant section of uLearn.
- 4.10 All appraisal conversations should include a wellbeing discussion. The wellbeing grid is used as a reference guide to both appraisee and appraiser to aid this conversation, which should not be held in isolation to 1:1 meetings, wellbeing check-ins and wellbeing conversations. The grid should be considered in preparation of the appraisal for staff to have the opportunity to access all and any support required, and for this to be discussed and documented as necessary.
- 4.11 All staff will be asked to share their career aspirations as part of the appraisal and will be supported via the uLearn Resource pages.
- 4.12 The annual appraisal review meeting is only one element of effective performance management. Discussions regarding work performance, progress with objectives, and development needs should take place regularly throughout the year between the individual and their line manager. This could be undertaken via one-to-one meetings, supervision sessions, informal discussion etc. However, a 6 month review is advised to be carried out as a minimum, as part of regular 1:1 meetings or management supervisions (appendix 6 and 7).

- 4.13 Where agreement cannot be reached between the appraiser and appraisee, regarding the performance rating, the appraisee will have the right to request a review by the appraiser's manager, whose decision will be final.
- 4.14 The appraisal discussion will be formally recorded using uLearn. The content of the appraisal discussion and associated documentation should be treated confidentially.
- 4.15 The appraisal must be signed off by both appraiser and appraisee on uLearn by the required deadline to ensure pay step progression is processed where applicable and to ensure monitoring of compliance and performance ratings can be maintained. All appraisers have the authority to authorise approval of pay step progression following appraisal where appropriate.

5.0 New Starters/New to Role/Secondments

- 5.1 Managers should discuss the principles of appraisal at LPT with new employees within their first two weeks in post, providing an opportunity to clarify expectations and set initial role specific objectives.
- 5.2 An appraisal will take place with all new starters (either new to the organisation or to role) within 6 months of commencement in post (or within 12 months of the previous appraisal for internal moves, whichever is sooner), to measure initial performance in the role, set any new role specific objectives, and identify areas for development. For new starters who are within their probation period, this initial appraisal must also include the final probation review in line with the Probation Policy.
- 5.3 Newly qualified healthcare professionals should be appraised with consideration to the requirements of the Preceptorship Policy and Programme.
- 5.4 Individuals on secondment should have an appraisal before taking up the secondment to discuss and document progress to date within that appraisal year. Whilst on secondment they should participate in appraisal for the seconded role. This includes staff undertaking an educational course as part of a seconded role, for example, school nurses undertaking SCPHN.
- 5.5 For internal staff new to a role, managers need to ensure they are aware of the last appraisal date to ensure a new appraisal is completed within 12 months.

6.0 Right of Review Process

- 6.1 Where agreement cannot be reached between the appraiser and appraisee, regarding the performance rating, the appraisee will have the right to request a review by the appraiser's manager, whose decision will be final.
- 6.2 Requests for reviews must be lodged with the appraiser's manager within 10 working days of the appraisal in writing (emails are acceptable) using the template provided at Appendix 3. In requesting a review, the individual must state clear grounds for a review, including details of where they believe their appraisal has not been an accurate assessment of their performance and provide examples.
- 6.3 The appraiser's manager will hear the review within 21 calendar days of receiving the request for a review. It may be appropriate for the appraiser's manager to use peer review or specialist support in considering a review if they do not have sufficient knowledge of the role of the individual under review. It is the responsibility of the appraiser's manager to decide if they wish to use peer review or specialist support in the review.

- 6.4 Should a review result in pay step progression being reinstated, the employee will receive their pay step backdated to their pay step date.

7.0 Due Regard

- 7.1 The Trust's commitment to equality means that this policy has been screened in relation to paying due regard to the general duty of the Equality Act 2010 to eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations. A due regard assessment has been undertaken and is available at appendix 8.

8.0 Training Needs Analysis

- 8.1 There is a need for training identified within this policy. In accordance with the classification of training outlined in the Trust Training Policy, this training has been identified as role essential for managers and appraisers.
- 8.2 A record of the training will be recorded on uLearn.
- 8.3 The governance group responsible for monitoring the training is the Strategic Workforce Group (SWG).
